The Trusts currently under the Trusteeship of the Orange Music Foundation Limited are listed below, each one accompanied by a broad description of its purposes and conditions.

THE GODFREY TURNER MEMORIAL MUSIC TRUST is to apply its funds “to raise the standards of appreciation and practice of music in the region of which the centre is the City of Orange and particularly in the City of Orange itself and without limiting the generality of the foregoing and at the absolute discretion of the Trustee:

- (a) To assist in the provision of concerts, workshops and masterclasses by the finest professional musicians available;
- (b) To assist in the provision of high quality instrumental, vocal, musicianship and academic tuition for local students by qualified and / or experienced music teachers;
- (c) To assist in the provision of such musical instruments and / or equipment as may be needed or desirable for use by music-making groups in the City of Orange.”

THE MARGARET HENDERSON MUSIC TRUST is to apply its funds “to assist by award of scholarship or in any other manner as the Trustees consider appropriate outstanding young musicians of Orange to pursue advanced studies in music and subjects associated therewith, in the hope that they may be able to pursue careers as professional musicians and, in turn, to improve the culture and opportunities of the young people of Orange”.

THE ORANGE MUSIC FOUNDATION is to apply its funds “solely for the purpose of providing money, property or benefits for the Orange Regional Conservatorium Incorporated .... provided it remains an Eligible Charity”. (Note: This Foundation currently has insufficient funds to make grants and is in the process of seeking tax-deductible donations to augment its capital. Only the Orange Music Foundation’s funds are restricted to benefit the Orange Regional Conservatorium.)

The Orange Regional Conservatorium Inc, individual music students, groups or bodies which meet the conditions quoted above may apply at any time in writing for funds that are under the Trusteeship of Orange Music Foundation Limited.

Applications will be considered by the Trustee at any one of its regular meetings in April, July and November in each year.
